Using coordinating conjunctions "for," "yet," and "but" [1]

Practice 1

Instructions. Based on this lesson, fill in the blanks using a coordinating conjunction: "for," "yet," "and yet," or "but." Some items may have multiple correct answers.

When you are done, see "Answer Key" to check your answers.

---

1. Enjoy family and friends every day, _____ life is short.

2. She already speaks Italian very well, _____ she wants to take a language course in Italy.

3. Mary has two jobs, _____ she still has time to study English and German.

4. Please finish quickly, _____ you have only 10 more minutes left.

5. It's very cold, _____ the children want to play outside.

6. She has everything she needs, _____ she is not happy.

7. In this town, people do not go outside often in the winter, _____ the weather is usually terrible.

8. It doesn't rain very often in this area, _____ the trees and plants are always green.

9. You say you don't have time to study, _____ you watch TV every night.

10. Don't spend all your money, _____ you may need it later.

Answer Key

1. Enjoy family and friends every day, for life is short.

2. She already speaks Italian very well, yet she wants to take a language course in Italy.
   She already speaks Italian very well, and yet she wants to take a language course in Italy.
   She already speaks Italian very well, but she wants to take a language course in Italy.

3. Mary has two jobs, yet she still has time to study English and German.
   (Also possible: and yet or but)

4. Please finish quickly, for you have only 10 more minutes left.

5. It's very cold, yet the children want to play outside.
   (Also possible: but)

6. She has everything she needs, and yet she is not happy.
   (Also possible: yet or but)

7. In this town, people do not go outside often in the winter, for the weather is usually terrible.

8. It doesn't rain very often in this area, yet the trees and plants are always green.
   (Also possible: and yet or but)

9. You say you don't have time to study, and yet you watch TV every night.

10. Don't spend all your money, for you may need it later.