Reflexive Pronouns

Practice 2

Instructions. Based on this lesson, answer each question using a reflexive pronoun.

Example

    Question: Who is teaching your brothers French?

      Answer: They're teaching themselves French.

When you are done, see "Answer Key" to check your answers.

---

1. Who is going to introduce you to the guests? (singular you)

    _____

2. Who is Mary talking to?

    _____

3. Who do you see in the mirror? (plural you)

    _____

4. Who does Pedro work for?

    _____

5. Who are they buying flowers for?

    _____

6. Who is driving Mary to school?

    _____

7. Who is going to introduce us?

    _____

8. Who is paying for them?

    _____

9. Who are we paying for?

   _____

10. Who will turn the TV off?

    _____

11. Who is feeling sorry for Janet?

    _____

12. Who is going to prepare the students for the test?

    _____

Answer Key

1. I'm going to introduce myself to the guests.

2. She's talking to herself.

3. We see ourselves in the mirror.

4. He works for himself.

5. They're buying flowers for themselves.

6. She's driving herself to school.

7. We're going to introduce ourselves.

8. They're paying for themselves.

9. We're paying for ourselves.

10. They're cooking for themselves.

11. Janet is feeling sorry for herself.

12. The students are preparing themselves for the test.